Harassment of Indian Computer Engineers in US

†62. SHRI SWARAJ KAUSHAL:
SHRI SATISH CHANDRA SITARAM PRADHAN:

Will the Minister of EXTERNAL AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government are aware of the misbehaviour of emigration officials with Indian computer programmers in USA recently;

(b) if so, the details thereof;

(c) whether Government of India have sent any protest letter to US Government in this regard; and

(d) if so, the US Government's reaction thereto?

THE MINISTER OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRI JASWANT SINGH): (a) Yes Sir.

(b) On January 20, 2000, 39 Indian computer professionals working at Randolph Air Force Base, San Antonio, Texas were arrested for alleged violation of their employment terms under their HI-B visas, by working for a company other than the one listed on their labour certificates. They were released the next day after the company that hired them-Frontier Consulting, Inc. executed bonds for their release.

(c) Ambassador of India in Washington D.C. lodged a strong protest with the State Department over the arrest and handcuffing of the Indian nationals by the Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS) authorities in San Antonio and demanded immediate explanation for the action. The matter was also taken up with INS authorities in Washington as well as with the district Director of Criminal Investigation of the INS in Texas.

(d) The Assistant Secretary of State Department expressed deep regret on behalf of the US Government at the way the Indian nationals were treated and assured the Ambassador they would be
